Shares in the Football Club: It continues to be very frustrating. Meetings are being promised, but not taking place after being told they would. Very disappointed with progress. To be pursued.

Volunteer Initiative: More volunteers are now returning on Tuesday mornings after Covid restrictions. Painting continuing, plus work in the bar.

Disabled Facility: Level Playing Fields have reported back on plans sent to them and have passed them, although on a smaller scale has originally planned. Hopefully this will be pushed on with soon. First monies have been released for this.

Junior Section: Soccer schools taking place. How much is the Academy side is involved with the junior section, this question was asked.

AGM Planning: All in hand for May 13th. Invites to members to join the meeting will be sent out twice with a link to our website for AGM documents. Two nominations for the board have been received. Plan for agenda for officers involved sent out.

200 Club: Dave, 200 Club administrator has had an operation, draw to follow in a few days. Football Club website administrator Kev Brown to be contacted and asked to post a short notice on website explaining the situation.. Paypal question to be sorted by Pete Davis.

AOB: Season ticket situation from last season was discussed, it's been brought up with the club, and we were told by the chairman that it was being sorted.

FTTT special presentation this week on history of competitions involving teams of Nuneaton Town v Stockingford, when the 'Ford was a separate entity.
